

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE VOLUNTEER IN MANDARA ASSOCIATION?

We love receiving committed people who want to contribute for the change and look in front with positive mind. Mandara association believes that a voluntary is a kind of person who unselfishly contributes to transform realities that violate human rights. If you have decided to be part of the team Mandara through the volunteer program, it means that we can work together and succeed important common goals. We are sure this will make us happy and satisfied. Mandara Cultural Association and Cooperation performs its work in two different geographic areas, Spain (Europe) and Africa. In both continents there are currently several projects underway (you can obtain further information by clicking in the "PROJECTS" section on this website) in which we need your help to grow. The lines of action are focused on the following areas:

If you are interested in collaborating with us as a volunteer, send this dossier filled out with your personal information to the email address: info@asociacionmandara.org
